2019 ICRN Industry Forum

Cholangiocarcinoma is a silent killer with very limited treatment options. Due to the unmet need, many companies are committing significant resources to find an approved treatment for cholangiocarcinoma.

The International Cholangiocarcinoma Research Network (ICRN) recognizes this commitment and is proactively working with industry to accelerate drug development for patients by providing a forum for industry to present clinical trial concepts and receive feedback, as well as open the door to potential partnership and collaboration opportunities.

The 4th Annual ICRN Industry Forum(s) will be held at the CCF Annual Conference on Thursday, January 31 and Friday, February 1 from 12-2pm.

Price	$15,000	$5,000
